

This is a piece that came from a really cool shot of my favorite-colored cruisers' cruising down the strand – so I guess the name truly fits!!

Cruiser, 2021 16 x 20" Sheer Gloss Metal Print from Original Acrylic on Canvas Panel $1250

This piece started it all – THE COASTAL COLLECTION – with its colors and abstract themes with a touch of realism – it inspired me so much I continue to paint new pieces currently. Lonely Lifeguard, 2021 36 x 48" Original Acrylic on Canvas

$3600

One of my favorite local beaches sits right next to the famed Pirate's Tower and I don't know if I will ever be able to capture the true beauty I see here! Pirate Tower, 2021 36 x 48" Original Acrylic on Canvas

$3600

Watching the sunset through palm trees is one of my favorite views, this would be just before the stars come out.

Palms at Sunset, 2021 11 x 14" Sheer Gloss Metal Print from Original Acrylic on Canvas Panel $1000

37x19.5" Acrylic on wood panel March 2020 – a piece that came straight out of the confusion from the beginning of the shutdowns in Beach Cities when they closed the beaches. I am not sure if I understood what was happening and this just appeared to be my "High Water Mark" for most of that summer. $2500

#NoFilter is my most recent piece. It easily comes from how grateful I feel whenever I get to go to the beach. Even if I go to the beach everyday I try to never take it for granted, you have to just stop and take it all in!! 30x45" Acrylic on canvas $3250
